It is now generally understood that the Republicans in both houses of Congress, aided by a few Democrats, will support Hiscock's revenue bill. The measure proposes a re-duction of the duties on sugar. The amount duction of the duties on sugar. The amount of the reduction contemplated has not been stated in any of the dispatches, but it may be assumed that it will amount to about one-half of the whole duty. The rate of duties on sugars not above 13 Dutch stand-ard is 1.04 cents per pound, or about 60 per

Yesterday the steamers Kinau and Likelike both took their departure-the former for Hilo and the latter for Kahnlui and Hana.

The arrivals for the week have been the American bark Sonoma, from Newcastle, N. S. W., with coal, to Irwin & Co., the Hawai-ian bark Lady Lampson, also coal laden, from Newcastle, N. S. W., to C. Brewer & Co., and the British bark Ziola is from the same port with coal, consigned to Mr. J. T. Waterhouse. The brig Claus Spreckels from San Francisco, arrived yesterday, with general mer-chandise, to Irwin & Co.

The American bark Hope, with 557,000 feet of Lumber to Lewers & Cooke, arrived on the Sist, from Port Townsend. Capt. Penhallow reports sailing January 3d and experienced fine weather the entire trip. Capt. Penhal-low reports the bark Julia Ford on the berth pading for this port.

The ship Mercury is still at the wharf, but will probably sail in a day or two. Hawaiian bark Lilian is advertised to sail for Hongkong to-day.

A number of whalers are reported cruising about the Islands, some of which have struck whales, and afterwards lost them, The Hawaiian training ship Kaimiloa is being transformed into a cruiser. At present her spars are all out of her, and the vessel is undergoing a thorough overhauling.

The Saranac will probably sail to day for San Francisco with a large cargo of sugar—some 1,800 tons.

Sugar is reported to be accumulating at the various landings, but owing to rough and wet weather, shipment is delayed.

The missionary bark Morning Star, Capt.

Mr. E. B. Byan is progressing with the re-pairs on the schooner Ke Au Hou. The steamer Surprise this trip will after landing at Kuau, Maui, proceed on to Laupahoehoe, Hawaii, to land sugar.

Turner, is due from her cruise to the west-ward, about the latter part of this month.

The Rev. E. T. Done gives information relative to the taking possession of Ponape by the Spanish; the news, however, has already appeared in condensed form in the GAZETTE. A valuable addition to the Magazine is the monthly record of events. Road Supervisor Aiapai has knocked off work on Liliha street, and has devoted his energies to the Palama road. The result is that the work done on Liliha street is wasted and that, like the demoniac, the last state of that road is worse than the first. Since writing the above the Road Supervisor has resumed operations on Liliua Street.

Mr. Dare, ex-Attorney General, says be does not intend to return to the Coast. The Kohala mills are all doing good work, The Kohala Sugar Co. is alive with good cane and good sugar. A section of about forty acres yielded an average of more than seven tons to an acre. A thirty acre field of rattoons is also being cut; more than half of the field is finished and so far it is yielding five tons to an acre. Between 7,000 and 8,000 bags of sugar are now ready for ship-

The Police Court in Kohala is busy as usual. There was a case of "okolehao" or native liquor before the bench the other day. Three natives and one Japanese were arrested for the offense. The Sheriff is still tracing the case up until he gets the party that made the liquor. Defendants claim that there is no law against selling native iquor but a charge must be made of distilling unlawful liquors.

A dead sperm whale was drifted ashore at Puehuehu boat landing- It is pronounced by an old whaleman to be a large whale of its kind. It measured about fifty feet in length. The spot was overcrowded with with people on Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday, to have a look at the sea monster. Three harpoons and a small piece of chain tied around its tail were found, which proved to be a fish that got drifted from some whaleship. The Government road between Kaiopihi and the foreign church is completed. It is a fine piece of work. The road has been raised about four feet high, and a good, substantial culvert placed underneath it, to drain the water that runs down from the hill-sides. Formerly this part of the road was dangerons and unfit for traveling. A vote of thanks should be tendered to the officers of the Ko-hala Sugar Company for their undertaking, and to show that their prompt action has been appreciated by the people. It is to be hoped that the Government will refund them part of their expenses.

The Magic Crowd.

The above is the title of Mr. Booth's lecture Friday evening, and was listened to attentively by a large and appreciative audience. The lecturer described in a humorous way the peculiarities of various nationalities—drawing a moral from each—showing that all were not destitute of some redeeming qualities worthy of emulation.

The lecturer invariably pointed out the evil effects caused by intemperance in those countries, and also spoke in strong terms of The Hon. A. S. Cleghorn and the Princess the demoralizing effects of the gaming tables, so much in vogue on the Continent. Alto-gether the lecture was a really enjoyable one, and the vast assemblage dispersed feeling more than satisfied with the evening's entertainment.

EDITOR GAZETTE: Just a few lines con-cerning postal matters in Kohala. So much has been said about the cause of the recent change that a casual reader would fancy our former Postmaster must be a most terrible

The loss of a bundle of letters was very annoying, yet there was nothing criminal surely about it. Accidental and yes, perhaps, the charge of carelessness, might be substantiated, but Mr. Mackenzie is nobody's protege, and no one regrets more sincerely the whole affair, not that it has resulted in the loss of his place, but for the inconvenience and trouble caused.

The present Postmaster is a man we all respect, and only hope he may be inclined to retain such a poorly paid appointment.

Gazette's Kohala Letter.

Kohala, February 4, 1887. A large whale came ashore some days since and many people have gone down to the shore to see it. A very indistinct impression of the whale, but a stupendous one of the effluvia seem to be the result of these visits. Some of the bones were carried off as souvenirs of his whaleship's advent.

The weather is threatening, and we seem to be awaiting a storm of some kind. Thunder is heard now and then in the distance. The surf is very high, and schooners are waiting at Keaweeli and Niulii for a chance to discharge.

Mudholes still abound, and visitors to Kohala who come up on the train to-day will be duly impressed by the condition of our roads. Have you heard the latest connudrum? Who is writing the Kohala letters?

Mr. Booth's Lectures.

During the past week Mr. R. T. Booth has held forth to large and appreciative audiences. It is needless to say that this gentleman has accomplished a great amount of good here and has succeeded in drawing a goodly number of people to the banner of temperance.

Mr. Booth delivered an address in Fort-Street Church, Sunday evening, to a densely packed audience. The lecturer was preceded by the Rev. E. C. Oggel in a few well-timed remarks on the great question of the daytestotalism.

Last evening Mr. Booth gave his final lecture at the Fort-Street church, to a large at-tendance. The lecturer spoke with his usual force, and a large number were added to the "Blue Ribbon Brigade." A pleasant feature of this evening's entertainment was a church sociable, which was participated in by nearly all present, and was also made the occasion

The case of Arthur E. H. Swift vs. H. H. and Norman D. Garston came up before Mr. Justice McCully on Wednesday, February 2d. The plaintiff had presented a petition for the dissolution of the partnership existing between the parties, who have been carrying on business as sugar planters at Kilanea, Kavai. An interlocatory injunction had been issued An interlocatory injunction and been issued restraining defendants from interference in the affairs of the business, and the order was returnable on the 2d inst. A motion was now filed by defendants' counsel to dissolve the injunction on the grounds that no suffi-cient cause for the allowance of same ap-peared in plaintiff's bill; that defendants constitute the majority of said firm and plaintiff's conduct had not been such as to entitle him to such process, that the time for making important contracts in the business is at hand and the injunction would therefore occasion great loss and damage to de fendants should they be deprived of a voice in determining the same. After argument, the Court ordered that the injunction be dissolved. Mr. W. R. Castle for plaintiff; Mr. F. M. Hatch for defendants.
